THE SKIPJACKS IN FIRST PLACE?

Preposterous. But true. After 12 weeks of the 1992 Hot Stove League season, the once lowly Skipjacks have vaulted into the League lead with a total of 6481.2 points. Boosted by a two-week point total of 1198.3 (second highest of the season) and injuries to the slumping Reds, the erstwhile Mudhens now look like the team to beat in 1992. The totals:

1.	Skipjacks	6481.2
2.	Reds	6316.0
3.	Cubs	6235.7
4.	Senators	6178.1
5.	Tigers	6021.3
6.	Blues	5712.1
7.	Tribe	5619.8
8.	Red Sox	5544.8
9.	Pirates	5483.6
10.	Chiefs	5138.2

The Top Hitters

1.	Kirby Puckett	749
2.	Mark McGwire	660
3.	Chuck Knoblauch	650
4.	Shane Mack	643
5.(tie)	Paul Molitor	626
6.	Andy VanSlyke	626
7.(tie)	Frank Thomas	621
8.	Dave Winfield	621
9.	Marquis Grissom	619

10. Ruben Sierra 616

The Top Pitchers

1.	Roger Clemens	501.0
2.	Tom Glavine	496.9
3.	Chris Nagy	451.8
4.	Kevin Brown	451.4
5.	David Cone	445.3
6.	Juan Guzman	431.3
7.	Jeff Smoltz	397.5
8.	Kevin Appier	384.3
9. (tie)	Greg Maddux	380.4
10.	Bob Tewksberry	380.4

Can the wily manager of the Skipjacks keep making the right moves and utterly steal the Cup in 1992? Get serious. It's a long season.
