

FROM THE BULLPEN

Official Publication of
The Hot Stove League
Eastern Nebraska Division
1993 Season

Edition No. 16
July 28, 1993

COLEMAN "SPARKS" COLEMANS; SENATORS PLUMMETING

Sparked by the madcap antics of one of the most beloved players in Hot Stove League history, Vince "The Firecracker" Coleman, the Lincoln Colemans are poised for a move toward the title. How about that prankster, Vinnie? What a great guy. And how about that vehicle full of Hall-of-Fame-type all-around-great-guys, Vinnie, Eric and Bobbie Bo? Throw Kevin Mitchell in the backseat, and the package would be complete.

CHIEFS RUNNING WILD

With nearly two-thirds of the 1993 season in the can, the Chiefs look ready to make a laugher out of the pennant race, with nearly a 200-point lead (through games of July 27):

1.	Lincoln Chiefs	5598
2.	Sin City Reds	5419
3.	Omaha Senators	5298
4.	Omaha Skipjacks	5294
5.	Lincoln Colemans	5197
6.	Omaha Red Sox	5144
7.	Lincoln Cubs	5001
8.	Kansas City Blues	4964
9.	Omaha Redbirds	4826
10.	Detroit Tigers	4786
11.	Omaha Bronx Bombers	4678
12.	Transactions Suspended	4143

THE TRIP

If anyone needs a reminder, we will be leaving on our summer trip next Thursday, August 5, 1993, at 7:19 a.m. from Omaha, and arriving in L.A. at 10:13 a.m. We then will pick up our death van and proceed to the Big A, for a 1:05 p.m. Angels/Royals game. WhiteSot is putting together the last minute touches on the itinerary for when we arrive, but it appears that a side junket to Tiajuana is in the cards (there's definitely a mesh

From the Bullpen

Edition No. 16

July 28, 1993

Page 2

sombrero and giant chess board in Shamu's future). WhiteSot also promises a "day at the beach" on Saturday, so bring your swimming gear (no mesh, Shampoo, but do bring the Sunscreen 2000).

Get ready for a good time, and be ready to dicker. Remember, the "four stages of tequila" trade rule will be in effect. If you are merely invisible, you are still eligible to trade. However, once you reach "bulletproof," all transactions will be presumed void for lack of mental capacity.

See you on Thursday!

Skipper